An etymid with re-in-carn-ation
(again-in-meat-tron) is no good.

I was reading a passage about reincarnation

⌈    ◻    L + ⌈    ↑ # - ◻

(last night before bed & came up with the above.)

First it was ⌈; then I abbreviated it

to ⌈ (⌈?). I don't pay much

attention to the -tion (⌈) noun ending.

It just gets in the way.

The book was The Pleiadian Mission by Randolph Winters
p. 146 "We are spiritual beings living a series of material lives in order to evolve."

To me it is important to have good ids for important ideas.
