

① zenzen shirimasen I have no idea. I don't know at all

The Japanese phrase "zenzen shirimasen" reduplicates "zen" for intensity. I have chosen my id for "not" for this — intensely not, not at all I think it works well.
 (Yoku kiku to omoimasu [— kiku, be effective — effect — result])

black box = the unknown, I don't know.

is beautifully poetic in its compactness, I think.

The "-masu" polite ending is left off as inessential

I have great fun making ids for Japanese.

It requires that I (creatively!) make graphic the beauty of the language.

I would love to have a Japanese person help me make ids

for Japanese.
