

WOMEN, HONESTY, NOWADAYS, LICENTIOUS, CONSIST CARE

A she (O he)
 A woman the 2nd is satisfying in a way because it is more real - showing true salient characteristics.

HONESTY
 honesty person/inner quality indicator T truth/true pedestal = honoring noun cap (- verb vector)

So: innerly (having the inner quality of) honoring the truth.
 An interesting variant: innerly honoring what is real

Related: dignity (honor) ↑ up, showing uprightness, an element of dignity.

nowadays = day (the sun over the surface of the earth) (night)

now (time indicator)
 I like it when I create a shorthand id for a frequently used phrase like this. Nice symmetry, too!

nice [ne scio - not knowing] good licentious ~ free (bird) - too/over too big too much overwork consist (#) [-con intensifier - stare cause to stand, stare stand]

gush

CARE have feel, feeling have a feeling This works for some senses of "care".
 I enjoy combining + abbreviating things.

"quite a bit" another example of combining + abbreviating / letting represent container bit bite. I know + remember that here the dot is the dot of "bit". With this id I put "quite a bit" in the "container" family, relating it to "a lot" full plenty abundant [undawave] much enough amount (mountain), etc.
