Constellations of Ideas Strengthening Mental Focus / Unless/Except

1 x ⊙ ... One thing I do with ids is make constellations — interconnected networks — of ideas. See my post "The Ideographic Familification of Ideas".

this is indeed strengthening of thought.

Just as according to top exercise experts tightening other muscles at the same time will add to the strength of a muscle, so too with ids ideas, since they are formed into strong teams, can focus more intensely, with greater effectiveness.

... unless ⊙/⊙ (negative + positive cases) and associated it with new ids for "except" ○/●, thus strengthening and clarifying this family of ideas.
