

Prodigious Creativity

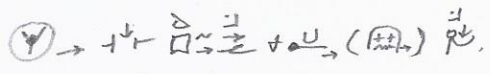

I am prodigiously creative with this project.

And what I produce - my creations - are highly significant, having great effect.

For with each new id I am changing language and mind, taking control of and personalizing what is normally largely just culturally given and passively (stupidly) accepted.

Each creation touches and changes the web of ideas, bringing mental light and clarifying structure where the dark heavy cobwebs of predominantly changeless time ruled, taking language and thought into a new realm.
