Adolf Hitler's favorite saying: xx 2 o "Es gibt zwei Möglichkeiten," There are 2 possibilities.

⏃ idea (⏃ think)

I had never liked ⏃ much for "idea", but when I think of the ° on top as a possibility, an openness, an insubstantiality, I like it better. ⏃ idea

So, I appreciate ⏃ more because I connect it to ...o possible.

So, this is an illustration of ids supporting one another, of ids existing in matrices of semantic families — constellations in id space, shedding semantic light like stars.
